

Palo Alto Host Lions Club

MANE TOPICS

November 11, 2008

November 11: Carol A. Dabb Art Consultant.

Pearl Director program chair
door prize Steve Pedone

NOVEMBER 18: THERE WILL be an EVENING MEETING!!!!
Contrary to last weeks Mane Topics

November 20 Thursday Annual Big Game Rivalry
Palo Alto Host Lions are invited to join the Berkeley Lions at the Berkeley City, Club 2315 Current Ave. Berkeley 12 noon-1:30

We want a good turnout! Sign up and car pool.

Go Indians!
(Cardinals)

Jim Rutter will be our Master of Ceremonies Re-living great moments in Stanford football history.
Greg, the famous Trombone player will entertain.

HOLIDAY PARTY SUNDAY DECEMBER 14 AT THE UNIVERSITY

Al Thomas was presented the "Lao Leones" award for outstanding service to the Palo Alto Host Lions Club, District and State Well deserved!!!

Erik Winkler &
D.G. Emil Kantola

The Millbrae Leo's were a big help at the Concours, this is a chance to thank them:
Christmas Festival Millbrae Lions. $55.00 family of 6 includes a Christmas tree for the first 400 families.
Support Millbrae Lions charities and Millbrae Leo Club and Our Lady of Angels Church
The venue will be at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, 1721 Hillside Drive in Burlingame, 11:00 am to 6:00
Leos Chairman Lion Doug Callahan tickets(650) 742-0545

WE SERVE

Fruit for Elizabeth Seton after school program.

Thanks to these Lions for representing our club

Bill Downey was at the Haunted Lake Friday 10/31 scaring the dickens out of kids and parents by operating the scare factory on the lake shore which by pushing buttons he could open a coffin (inhabited by a ghoulish corpse) and a lid out of which a head popped. Great fun hearing the squeals. Bill Downey. Bruce was also there Friday night. Nick, Roger, Dennis and his daughter Rose and her friend Sarah volunteered Sat. Night